

Subscribe Today...

Don't miss The Blueprint, the spring issue of TFW, which be mailed in just a few short weeks. If you are not a paid subscriber you need to sign up today, otherwise you will miss out on learning from women who have unique stories to tell and contributors who are experts in helping women be successful in their careers.

TFW will not be distributing this issue electronically! Subscribe today using promo code SU88 to receive a 20% off the annual subscription price, a savings of $7.40.

TFW is a lifestyle publication that celebrates successful women. TFW mines the minds of mavens, from solopreneurs to CEOs of corporations, to bring you insights, inspiration and ingenuity from women at the top or on their way up.

Subscribe Today!

The Blueprint TFW™ Spring 2010 Issue

*"A Path of One's Own"
Three women created and achieved their own definitions of success.*

Knowing what you want from your career, and knowing how to get it, are different endeavors. Noreen Davis, System Vice President, St. Luke's Health System believes in order to feel satisfied, you have to have a passion for your job. The question is do you feel passionate about your job?

Read the complete article in the upcoming issue of TFW. If you have not subscribed do so today!

Weekly Reading

"The Power of Small"
by Linda Kaplan Thaler and Robin Koval

In today's world, we're faced with overwhelming challenges — professionally and personally. We often feel stuck and don't even know where to start. But we can all tap into the unbelievable power we have within to "get going" and make a huge difference in our lives and the lives of others. How? By starting SMALL.

The Power of Small can be found at many book retailers.

In the News...

Do you use your work gear for personal use?

Check out this story: Sexting case raises workplace privacy issues. Technology advances blur line between work and personal lives by Eve Tahmincioglu from MSNBC April 19, 2010.

Women at the Top™

Women at the Top™ Author Interview -- May 20, 2010 (12 noon CDT)

Join Regina Barr, founder of the WATT™ Network, as she interviews Angela O'Mara, author of Lipstick. Laptops. Life.

Poignant, wise and witty, Lipstick. Laptops. Life. tells the tale of Angela's determination to bring her company and herself back to the top, after finding herself at the helm of a sinking ship during the worst global economic recession in history. On her journey, she calls on parts of herself that were lost along the way. Through this self-realization, she uncovers seven modern-day feminine business archetypes that guide her down her new road to success.

It's FREE to attend but registration is required. Register here.

Congratulations

Congratulations to these women, their hard work, extensive knowledge and experience has been recognized!!!

Tammy Gibbons has been promoted to, Senior Vice President - Cashier responsible for Human Resources, Operations IT and Security Officer with Spring Hill Bank in Long View Texas. Tammy is a member of Financial Women in Texas and serves as conference chair and is expected to serve as Association Vice President and Group President in the coming term.

Laura Rogers has been promoted to Assistant Vice President - Loan Operations responsible for boarding, processing, compliance, and tracking with Spring Hill Bank in Long View Texas. Laura is a founding member of Financial Women in Texas and serves as Association Communications Chair currently and in the next term.

Elsa Monte has taken a new position with Sunwest Bank as Vice President - Community Reinvestment Officer responsible for establishing a Community Reinvestment Program and department from the ground up ensuring the bank is connected to the communities they serve. Elsa serves on the Board of Directors for the Southern California Reinvestment CDFI and serves on the Asset Review Committee for the Clearinghouse CDFI.

We wish you all the best success in your new positions and your continued progress in your career!

If you have a reason to celebrate please contact us at info@tritfw.com. TFW would love to share your success with real women, making real progress, towards real success around the world!